Mom, why?

At night, three rabbit brothers love to ask Mother Rabbit questions.

"Mom, why does the river love singing so much?"

"Because birds like to hear."

"Mom, why doesn't the river ever rest?"

"Because Mother Sea is waiting for the river to come home."

"Mom, please take us to see how the river returns home."

"Okay, let's go together tomorrow."

In the morning, Mother Rabbit and the rabbit brothers walked along the river. They walked and walked; a sea of blue appeared in front of their eyes.

Looking at the blue sea, the rabbit brothers cheered.
